MATERIALS

Your seminar notebook will be provided, but please bring paper/pens/laptop for note-taking.

Make sure to bring extra sheets of blank paper for taking notes, as you may find that you need more space than what is provided in the course binders.

Photo I.D. Please bring something official with your picture on it. Due to the need to cross check students' names with the paid student list, we will actually have to enforce the necessity of photo I.D. You won't receive your textbook until we see your photo I.D.

Checklist of things to bring to class:

- Notepaper, pens
- Water container
- Tissues, medication etc
- Cash for parking, food, products.
- Photo I.D: student card and/or driver's license.

- Whether you bring packed meals or eat outside, we highly recommend packed snacks even for the Friday night. After/During a long day you need to sustain your energy. So stock up on trail mix, energy bars, fruit and other bite sized nutrition.

Note: Your registration is non-transferable, so only the listed registrant will be eligible to attend the duration of the seminar.

ROOM SETUP/RULES

- NO AUDIO RECORDING DEVICES ARE ALLOWED IN CLASS.
- Cell phone ringers must be switched off.
- No children/babies will be allowed in class after Free Friday.
- Once the class has started, please refrain from leaving the class unless it is an emergency. Hence, we advise restroom use before the class begins or wait until the break period.
- These rules allow for a smooth and uninterrupted class. Everyone is comfortable and can benefit from the instructor!

PARENT-SITTING

This service is not available for this seminar. Kids under 13 are strictly not allowed in the classroom on Saturday and Sunday. Everyone in the main hall must be a paid attendee on those days.

SNACK TABLE

Qabeelat Zamzam will be having some snacks during Saturday and Sunday in order to raise funds for the Qabeelat activities. We urge everyone to either bake something as a donation or bring at least $5 to $10 in order to support the sale.
